A Short History of Diners in Willsboro

1937 Bill Murphy purchased the "Clinton Street Diner" in Plattsburgh and hired Jesse Jones of Keeseville to haul it to Willsboro. Murphy's Diner was first located about in the location of the Hardware Parking lot. The diner car was later moved to where our front parking lot is located. The year of this move is not known...as of yet.

1945 Harold Perkett purchased a building on the Station Road and hired Charles Ashline to move it to an empty lot on Main Street. About where the Adirondack Hardware store is now located. No photo available (yet).

1946 John Remancus joined the Perkett family operation and a new partnership was formed, thus the Sportsman's Dinette was born. The two bought a house on Main Street located where the old post office was, now an empty lot south of the hardware store. Livingston Hatch added a "counter room" to the front of the house. Parking was on the street.

1948 Bill Murphy's wife Peg is killed in a tragic fire at the Diner.

1949 Perkett & Remancus bought-out Bill Murphy and moved into Murphy's building. Bill Murphy moved to the other side of the mountain and built another diner at the corner of NYS Rt. 9 & 22. This was later known as Margaritas. Bill and his second wife (Peg #2) owned and operated Murphy's Taxi in Keeseville for many years after.

1960 Harold Perkett bought-out John Remancus.

1967 Perkett family sells to Mike and Margaret Sapatek.

1968 The Sapatek's hire Alex Richards of Willsboro to build the new Sportsman's Dinette that you are seated in today. The original 1937 diner was torn down the same year. Owner's, to present include; Mark McKenna, Walt Besaw, Terry Burt-Ashline & Becky Burt and currently Darren Darrah and Mark Bonfey.

Murphy's Clinton Street Diner in its 2nd location. The diner car was enclosed with numerous additions over the years.

This was the first Sportsman's Dinette with the added "Counter room" on the front. Note the neon sign, now look at our logo we use today.

Facts: The original "Clinton Street Diner" was an old style train car.

Perkett's first Diner building was sold to Vernon Hoskins and is now located on the Middle Road as a living-dinning room. It traveled from the Station Road to Main Street and then up to the Middle Road. The front "Counter room" on the Perkett/Remancus original Sportsman's "house" was moved across the road to the back of Talbot's Garage (Mobil Station) and is still there today.
